VIAMANCINELLI: hospitality lighting, passion for design

VIAMANCINELLI, with its contract division, manufactures and markets equipment and lighting systems dedicated to the hospitality contract sector, in Italy and Worldwide: as to the quality hotels, to the refurbishment of stately palaces and homes, to companies showrooms, to the prestigious institutional seats.

Founded as a workshop, specialized today in the manufacture and use of all supporting materials, from differently processed glass to the wood, from textiles to plastics, VIAMANCINELLI is the idea partner for those interior designers who, working in the hospitality sector, wish to achieve, through lighting, high results of style, charm and originality.

In direct contact with its customers, VIAMANCINELLI becomes laboratory and workshop of the designer himself, creating fitting following original drawings and through a manufacturing of precious handicraft level.

The company elaborates a continuous search for innovative ideas and design solutions in projecting light, interpreting the lighting as the fundamental value of the choices of furniture and interior decoration.

Production flexibility, know-how and selection of the best materials, analysis and constant study of all that today's technology offers in the field of light sources, precise attention to regulations on safety and quality: just through these elements VIAMANCINELLI has been able to realize the most prestigious projects.
